

BIOT204 THE PENTATEUCH

INTRODUCTION

This course features a survey of the Old Testament in the English Bible. Emphasis is placed on the major themes, key scriptures, and major personalities of Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy. Special attention is given to the revelation and promise of Christ in each of these books within the Bible.

Course Objectives:

Students will be able to:

- Identify the basic outline of each book
- Identify the main message or theme(s) of each book.
- Identify the revelation and promise of Christ in each book.

The plan of writing Scriptures originated with God. From its very source the Bible is a supernatural book. It is the revelation of God, written by divinely inspired human authors. Through the stages of transmission (communication from one to another), canonization (the process of determining what Books of the Bible are of Divine authority), and translation (bringing words from one language to another), God has preserved His Word. Today, as we hold a copy of the Bible in our hands, we may be fully confident of its trustworthiness.

Both the Old and New Testaments make up the inspired Scriptures. The New Testament was never intended to replace the Old Testament. Instead, the New Testament was given to complement the Old Testament, to complete the story.

1. The Old Testament prophesied the coming of Jesus.
2. The New Testament is the sequel to the Old Testament origins, heir of its promises and fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecies.
